DETAILED ACTION

Summary

On June 22, 2004, an Office Action was mailed to the Applicant rejecting claims 1-70. On October 15, 2004, the Applicant responded with arguments.

Bibliographic Data Sheet

The bibliographic data sheet contained an error in that the priority data was not included. The error is being corrected in the system.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-70 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kawan (US 2002/0065712) in view of Kalthoff (6,026,382).

Kawan discloses the invention substantially as claimed; however, Kawan does not disclose determining that the ATM user comprises a non-customer. Kalthoff teaches a computer-implemented system and corresponding method for relationship management comprising determining that the ATM user comprises a non-customer and providing incentives for the non-customer to become a customer (col.4, line 1 to col.6, line 50). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate the step of determining that the ATM user comprises a non-customer, as taught by Kalthoff into the invention disclosed by Kawan, to provide incentive for non-customers to become customers.

Art Unit: 3624

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-70 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
